Eligibility and Competition Rules

Eligibility and Medical Clearance

Newcomers with 0 to a maximum of 5 previous fights are eligible. Competitors must meet the sports passport or day licence requirements and the medical requirements. A day licence does not replace a medical certificate.

- Present a WKF sports passport with a valid annual licence or a day licence paid in advance. Bring any existing paper sports passport and original supporting documents for inspection.
- A valid sports medical certificate must be recorded in the passport or provided separately. Participation is confirmed only after medical clearance by the ringside doctor.
- Competitors under 18 require a signed consent form from a parent or legal guardian. Female competitors must provide the required non-pregnancy declaration.
- Select the correct discipline, age division and weight category when registering online. Check the actual weight and obtain all required approvals in time.

Rules and Round Times

International WKF competition rules apply. Amateur boxing follows the Austria Boxing Union competition rules. MMA and forms follow their respective discipline rules.

Competition	Round Times
Kids Kickboxing	2 rounds of 2 minutes
Kickboxing Juniors, Cadets and Adults	3 rounds of 2 minutes
Women's Amateur Boxing	3 rounds of 2 minutes
Men's Amateur Boxing	3 rounds of 3 minutes

Registration and Weight Categories

Official entries must be submitted online via WKF Tournament Systems by Wednesday, 16 December 2026 at 21:00 (Vienna time). No late entries or weight category changes are accepted after this deadline. The team worksheet on page 5 is for preparation and does not replace online registration.

Payment and Refunds

Competitors with a valid WKF sports passport may pay their entry fee in cash at registration in the sports hall on Friday. Without a valid WKF sports passport, the €30 entry fee and €30 day licence must be paid online in advance. Each additional start (discipline) costs €15. Entry fee and day licence refunds require withdrawal at least seven days before the tournament starts; the exact deadline is shown during registration.
